"These conferences are energizing and remind me of why I do this for a living."

"Great overview about a variety of issues. Breakout sessions allowed me to focus on issues relevant to my cases and avoid lectures on issues that I do not see."

"This is a great conference. The topics and speakers are great."

"Winning Strategies is always helpful."

-- Testimonials From
2007 Winning Strategies Seminar, Albuquerque, NM

Winning Strategies is a valuable educational opportunity that focuses on the nuts and bolts of federal criminal practice, including the sentencing guidelines and sentencing mitigation. Experienced and new panel attorneys can benefit from attending the Winning Strategies seminars. These programs offer varied presentations on topics of interest in both large and small group settings.
